

Regional Development Australia

An Australian Government Initiative

Local people developing local solutions to local issues

Who are we?

Regional Development Australia (RDA) is a national network of committees made up of local leaders who work with all levels of government, business and community groups to support the economic development of their regions.

There are 14 RDA Committees in New South Wales.

What do we do?

RDA members work to actively grow strong and confident economies in their regions that harness their competitive advantages, seize on economic opportunity and attract investment.
